

GET CREATIVE AT THE LIBRARY

WRITING

READING

PERFORMING

All programs funded generously through the Joan Berkley Writers Fund through the Johnson County Library Foundation

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

  ELEMENTIA

Now through December 5 • www.jocolibrary.org/teens/elementia • Ages 12-19 elementia is a literary teen zine published to represent and uplift young adults. We will accept poetry, fiction, nonfiction, graphic stories, photography and illustrations. Submissions must be original work.

Your perspective on a place depends on where you are standing. Where is your place? What is your place? When is your place? Who is your place? Why?

Our twelfth issue is dedicated to poet Naomi Shihab Nye, who will attend the author reception on Tuesday, March 3, 2015. Authors and artists and encouraged to use her work as an inspiration for their submissions.

THE MERRY SISTERS OF FATE

Central Resource Library Monday November 10 7pm • All Ages

Meet young adult authors of The Curiosities Maggie Stiefvater is the author of the Shiver trilogy, Scorpio Races and The Raven Cycle, Tessa Gratton is the author of The Blood Journals and The United States of Asgard, Brenna Yovanoff is the author of Paper Valentine, The Replacement, The Space Between and Fiendish. Books for all authors will be available for purchase.

PERFORMANCE ART WORKSHOPS FOR TEENS

Central Resource Library Saturdays September 27-October 18 2-4pm • ages 14-18

In workshops with performance artist Jessica Borusky, teens will discover a history of performance art in the U.S, and make performances with the body, narrative, and collaborative techniques. Participants may come to all four workshops, as each week will cover a new theme, or may attend any particular workshop. Participants are encouraged to bring writing or drawing materials, and clothing to move in.

