

Johnson County Library continues to support students with their learning. eResources are available free of charge to all Library card holders. Sign up for a free Library card online at ecard.jocolibrary.org (Johnson County residents only.) Forget your PIN to your Library account? Call 913-826-4600.

eRESOURCES FOR STUDENTS OF ALL AGES

jocolibrary.org/HomeworkHelp

Biography (Gale In Context): Comprehensive biographies on the world's most influential people with related content from periodicals and multimedia to provide context.

Brainfuse HelpNow: Live online tutoring daily 2-11 p.m. Professional tutors can guide you through academic subjects from kindergarten through AP and college level classes. Writing Lab to get feedback within one business day. SkillSurfer for study resources and test prep (AP, PSAT, SAT, ACT, ASVAB, GED and citizenship tests.) Send Question to get a response within one business day.

CultureGrams: Explore the culture, history and people of each U.S. state and country of the world.

Encyclopedia Britannica: School, Library, Academic, Escolar and Moderna versions of the encyclopedia offer articles for students of all ages.

Funk & Wagnalls New World Encyclopedia: Online encyclopedia for students.

Khan Academy: Khan Academy provides a free world-class education for anyone everywhere on topics like math, science, history, economics, humanities, programming and test prep.

LearningExpress Library: Tutorials and quizzes for elementary to adult for a variety of subjects.

Lightbox: Nonfiction eBooks that integrate multimedia into each page.

TOPICsearch: Articles from a variety of national and international newspapers and magazines.

JUST FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

jocolibrary.org/research/homework-help-kids

Kanopy Kids: Curated streaming video collection of children's programming.

National Geographic Kids: Great for kids interested in science, space, animals, history, geography and fun. Enjoy the full magazine with all the illustrations online.

Primary Search: Articles from popular elementary school magazines.

JUST FOR MIDDLE & HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

jocolibrary.org/research/homework-help-teens

Middle Search Plus: Popular magazines for middle and junior high school students.

MAS Ultra – School Edition: Articles from popular magazines and journals for high school students.

Explora: Articles and multimedia covering a wide variety of subjects like biography, business, current events, health, history, literature, science and more. Easy to browse new topics or search for specific information.

NewsBank Hot Topics: Concise summaries of the month's major news topics with links to relevant newspaper articles, blogs and more.

Primary Sources (Gale): Digital historical documents including books, manuscripts, letters, newspapers, photographs, maps and more ranging across topics of national and global relevance.