Activity Ideas – Dinosaurs

Dino, Dino, Who Has Your Bone? Have your child close his/her eyes, and hide the dinosaur bone (a dog's chew bone makes a great dino bone). Say "Dino, Dino, where is your bone, a paleontologist took it home." Have your child hunt for the hidden bone.

Explain that different dinosaurs eat different kinds of foods. This is a good time to teach the terms herbivore, carnivore, and omnivore. Make a list of various dinosaurs and what kind of food each creature ate. Serve a plate of lettuce and apples to your herbivore dinosaurs, a plate of meat and eggs to your carnivores, and a mixed plate to your omnivores. This is a great vocabulary builder!

Dinosaur Action Rhymes

Dinosaurs

Spread your arms, way out wide, fly like a Pteranodon, (tear-ann-oh-don) soar and glide.

Bend to the floor, head down low,
move like Stegosaurus, long ago.

Reach up tall, try to be as tall as Apatosaurus (uh-pot-o-saurus) eating on a tree.

Using your claws, grumble and growl
just like Tyrannosaurus on the prowl.

Dinosaur, dinosaur, turn around.
Dinosaur, dinosaur, touch the ground.
