SUMMARY

This document outlines JCL's commitment to being a depository for two governments, federal and state, and its means of housing the materials and creating accessibility to them.

Effective Date:
June 15, 2005 (reaffirmed)
Reviewed
October 4, 2017

POLICY

a. The Johnson County Library is a depository for documents of the United States and the state of Kansas. The County Librarian is authorized to meet the requirements and standards set forth by those governments for depository status.

b. Items from the depository collections may circulate, except those in heavy demand or with reference value.