ARM 10-50-40

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE JOHNSON COUNTY LIBRARY
Conflicts of Interest Policy for Members of the Board of Directors

This policy is applicable to members of the Board of Directors of the Johnson County Library (Library Board).

A conflict of interest arises whenever a Director or a member of his or her family: (1) has an existing or potential interest that impairs or might appear to impair his or her independent judgment in the discharge of responsibilities to the Library Board, or (2) may receive a material benefit from knowledge of information that is confidential to the Library Board. The family of an individual includes his or her spouse, parents and children.

Directors have a clear fiduciary obligation to the Library Board in connection with their service in such capacities. At all times they shall act in a manner consistent with this fiduciary obligation and shall exercise particular care that no detriment to the interests of the Library Board (or appearance of such detriment) may result from a conflict between those interests and any personal interests that Director may have.

Procedure

1. Annual Written Disclosure. Directors shall annually complete a Conflicts of Interest Statement and Disclosure Form, a copy of which is follows this Policy and is incorporated herein by reference. On that form, the Director will be asked to (1) confirm that he or she has read this Conflicts of Interest Policy and agrees to comply with the policy; (2) disclose any conflicts of interest of which the Director currently has knowledge; (3) list all nonprofit boards on which the Director serves and (4) list all for-profit business entities in which the Director has a material financial interest or acts in a fiduciary, policy-making or executive managerial capacity. "Material Financial Interest" shall not include the ownership of shares in a publicly held corporation. The statement shall disclose as fully as possible the nature of any conflicts and the nature of the Director's interest in the transactions. Each Director shall agree to answer any questions about conflicts. Directors shall update this information during the year by informing the Library Board Chair and County Librarian of any new relationships that develop.
2. Verbal Disclosure. Directors shall immediately disclose any actual or perceived conflict when discussing a transaction grant that poses an actual or perceived conflict of interest. The Director shall specifically disclose the material facts as to
 - a. his or her relationship or interest with the other party to the transaction and
 - b. the grant, contract, or transaction under consideration.
3. Discussion Participation. The Director with the actual or perceived conflict should not be involved further in the analysis, discussion or decision-making process, unless such person has a relevant and unique experience or perspective and the person present in the greatest position of authority for the Library Board (i.e. Chair of the Board, Committee Chair) asks such person for his or her information. Other Directors may also ask questions about the potential conflict.
4. Physical Presence. In order not to inhibit discussion, when practical, the Director with the actual or perceived conflict should physically remove himself or herself from the area in which the discussion is occurring.
5. Voting. The Director with the actual or perceived conflict shall abstain from voting on the matter. In particular, the Director shall abstain from voting when:

- a. The Library Board is considering a business transaction with an organization in which such Director or a member of the Director's family acts in a fiduciary, policy-making or executive managerial capacity or has a material financial interest.
6. Written record. The minutes of the meeting shall contain, when applicable:
- a. The names of the Directors who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a conflict of interest and any discussion or decision regarding such conflict; and
 - b. The names of the persons who were present for discussion and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the fact that the Director with the conflict abstained from the vote and discussion, the content of the discussion, and a record of any votes taken in connection therewith.

Confidentiality

All information concerning actual or potential conflicts of interest on the part of Directors shall be held in confidence unless the best interests of the Library Board dictate otherwise. Any disclosure beyond the Board of Directors and the Chair and County Librarian shall take place only upon majority vote of the Board of Directors.
